++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
A warm weekend, before turning more unsettled next week.

This Evening and Tonight:
Rather cloudy, misty, and murky overnight, with some hill fog. Some patchy light rain and drizzle at times, mainly over the hills and mountains. Another warm night for the time of year, with light winds too. Minimum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Sunday:
Mist and hill fog will gradually lift allowing warm sunny spells to develop. A band of rain, locally heavy with gusty winds, will arrive into the far west before midnight. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Heavy rain and strong winds will quickly clear through the early hours of Monday, followed by sunshine and heavy showers, some thundery. Further rain likely Tuesday, but drier Wednesday. Cooler.
